ELECTION OFFICERS TO CONDUCT PRIMARY

Are Appointed by County Election Commission—286 Names
In Special Registration

Election officers to conduct the primary for county officers on Saturday week, August 6, have been named by the County Election Commission composed of Sheriff P. S. Whitlock, as chairman, C. B. Terrill and E. C. Mil-

lin. At the special registration held in the county clerk's office Saturday, 286 registered. Some of them had moved from one precinct to another, while a number were those who had been out of town, or ill and had not voted last year. A large number were women. All registered as democrats. There was no effort made on the part of the local republican organization to get out the vote on their side, as they have no primary contests in the county or city, except at Berea and in two unincorporated districts.

Candidates for the local offices are all working hard for their favorites during the closing days of the campaign. Claims and counter-claims are being heard on all sides. Friends of several of the candidates are offering to wager on their chances of winning but so far, only a few wagers have been heard of.

What course the United States will take if the demand is unheeded is not indicated.

TO SIDETRACK TARIFF FOR TAX REVISION

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 27—A virtual agreement, it is said today, was reached at the white house dinner conference last night for Senate consideration of tax revision before the permanent tariff act is taken up by that body. A number of Senators were present and the legislative situation is said to have been discussed extensively.

Republican leaders said the Senate program was for the passage of the Kellogg substitute for the Norris agriculture exporting finance bill, the Willis-Campbell anti-beer bill and the Capper-Tincher bill for government regulation of future trading on grain exchanges before adjournment.

The allied debt refunding bill and railroad funding measure are slated for postponement to which the president is said to have agreed after being informed it would be difficult to pass them.

President Harding also plans discussion of the Congressional program with House leaders.

BEREA HERE SATURDAY; HUSTONVILLE MONDAY

The Richmond Bears have booked some hard games for the next two weeks. B. Z. McKinney, manager of the Bears, is to have the Berea team here to play another game Saturday. The Berea team and the Bears staged an 11-inning contest last Saturday that resulted in a tie. The same pitchers are to work for each team that worked last Saturday. Sam Reid is to pitch for the locals, while the Bears will have to face the offerings of Welch. The local Bear team is to be practically the same as last Saturday. The Berea line up also, will be the same. This is to be a great game as these two teams are very evenly matched.

Sam Reid will pitch again here on Monday, but for the Hustonville nine, which is to play the Bears on that date. The Hustonville team is one of the strongest aggregations in its section of the country and the game is to be an exceedingly good one. Manager McKinney is holding something in store for the local fans as to the pitcher that is to face Hustonville, but it is known that he will make a good selection.

The Bears will play Hustonville a return game Saturday, August 6.

IRVINE WON'T PLAY HERE AFTER ALL

The Irvine base ball club has called off the game that it was to have played with Richmond Thursday. After the four straight defeat that the Irvine nine sustained at the hands of Winchester the members became a bit discouraged, and seem to have disbanded, but only for the time being. Reports have been coming out of Irvine for the past few days to this effect but none was verified until a late hour Wednesday. The local management has decided to leave Thursday an open date instead of bringing a poor team here that might give the local nine a game such as the West Danville nine staged here last Thursday. There is also a report from Irvine that that team was a bit scared that the local boys might defeat them with Jim Parks on the mound and if this happened it might cook this one time star for good and all. There is a bare possibility that the Bears and the town team may play Thursday but it has not been decided as yet. The manager of the local town team is to be sure to have a good team here next Thursday, and one that will not disappoint the fans.

TWO SOX PLAYERS MAY BE ACQUITTED

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, July 27—Judge Friend today informed the state's attorneys in the base ball trial, he would direct the jury to return a verdict of not guilty in the cases of Buck Weaver and Happy Felsch, former White Sox players, unless further evidence was introduced against them. The state today rested its case after Billy Maharg, of Philadelphia, testified that he heard Eddie Cicotte in September, 1919, in a New York hotel say if the Sox won the pennant the world's series could be thrown for $100,000. He said Bill Burns and Chick Gandil were present. Later he met Burns in Cincinnati. "He told me," said Maharg, "Abel Attell got Arnold Rothstein to put up $100,000." Burns, the witness said previously, had told Rothstein the Sox agreed to throw the series for $100,000.

APARTMENTS TAKEN DOWN AT $6,300

Although many thought she had made a good sale, Mrs. K. B. Schlegel decided not to accept the sum of $6,300 offered her for her brick apartment building on North Third street, when it was offered Tuesday afternoon. The Freeman Realty Company conducted the sale and it looked like it was going to be a hummer for bidding was brisk right along. Had not Mrs. Schlegel placed an upset price on the property, it was believed that it would have brought a still higher offer.

FOUR TENNESSEE MEN GO TO CHAIR

For Murder of Man Who Done Them No Harm—Planned Bank Robbery In Oakdale

Knoxville, Tenn., July 27—Otto Stevens, Tom Christmas, John H. McClure and Charles Petree, all less than 30 years old, were sentenced to die in the electric chair this morning by the jury at Clinton, Anderson county, twenty miles north of this place. The defendants were found guilty of the murder of George A. Lewis, 55 years old, who had done them no harm, but whom they decided to kill on the theory that dead men tell no tales.

Lewis' throat was cut the night of May 30 at a lonely spot in the woods ten miles north of Clinton. His hands had been tied behind him, a towel stuffed into his mouth and he had been beaten on the head with a pistol. At the same time and place and by the same methods the four men sought to kill Andrew Crumley, taxi driver. Crumley's throat was terribly slashed. He saved himself by feigning death and escaped to give the alarm. The two crimes were part of a plan to rob the Oakdale Bank & Trust Co., an attempt being made the following morning.

WESTERN DIXIE IN FEARFUL SHAPE

The western section of the Dixie Highway, between Louisville and Cave City at least, was pronounced in fearful shape for motorists by M. C. Kellogg, local wholesale grocer, who has just returned with his family from a motor trip to Mammoth Cave. Mr. Kellogg says that there was no evidence of maintenance work having been done along that part of the road he travelled. He said that it took five hours to run the 90 miles he covered on that branch of the Dixie.

Wine and Wild Women

Chicago, July 27—Wine and wild women, a good time at the cabarets and an unholy greed for gold appears to be the best answer as to why Warren C. Spurgin, president of the Michigan Avenue Trust Co., is a fugitive from justice and the institution is short more than $1,500,000.
